Squib-Kick It To A Fat Guy

Synopsis

College football coach Mike Leach is known for three things in particular: 1. His teams winning lots of games; 2. Producing offenses that gain bunches of yards and score tons of points; and 3.

Speaking his mind and saying things that go far beyond the usual cliche-ridden coachspeak we are accustomed to hearing from his coaching peers. In "Squib-Kick It to a Fat Guy," we get Mike Leach unplugged in the form of hundreds of his most memorable quotes along with a few dozen others thrown in from other sources speaking their minds about Leach, most of it good and some of it not so good. This is Leachspeak at its best. Prepared to be informed, entertained, humored and at times even mystified by Leach and his thought processes as revealed in this delightful collection of unforgettable quotes.

Customer Reviews

Once you stop laughing at the wit of Mike Leach, you'll be left with a personal portrait of one very unique personality. I read this book to review for the folks I write for. And though I've covered the genius behind the Air Raid offense since he arrived in Pullman back in 2012, this compilation clarified just how interesting a man Mike Leach truly is. Alan Burton masterfully chose 700 quotes, with hundreds more left on the editing floor, to trace the one-of-a-kind relationship he shares with his team, coaches, university officials and fans. Chances are you'll be challenged to put the book down once you begin. No question this one is a page turner.

A great compilation of The Pirate's offbeat observations.

No kindle down load! I will buy the book, but like many others I care my kindle. I haven't carried a book since college. Anything Mike Leach get a five star. I am just mad because there is no kindle option.
