Customer Reviews

I love the Popout maps, and the Boston one didn't let me down. Seeing the points of interest plotted helped me plan my long weekend in the city, in a way that looking for one specific location or activity on a smartphone can't do.

This is a great portable map to use a companion to a GPS or map app on a smart phone. I really like the detail that this map provides, as well the fact that it folds back into place very easily.

It has a modern, compact, innovative design, but it lacks a map for the local commuter-rail-system. Coverage of the local "T" subway-rapid-transit system is good.

The map itself is good but it is very small and very very small print. Does have all the good places marked.

Not electronic or interactive but works every time -- gives overview of city that isn't apparent on phone-size map. Also, fits perfectly in breast pocket for handy reference.
